

Nijinski's BIG BAND

A danced up concert .. A danced up concert .. what what ??? A danced up concert !!!!

Pé Vermeersch ( voice, dance) Peter Clasen ( electronics ) , Lode Vercampt ( cello ) and Bart Maris ( trumpet ) with a vital humorous danced concert , with texts of the great dancer Vaslaw Nijinski put to songs and made to dance.

In Pé's interpretation Nijinsky becomes a tragic-comic hero. A soul screaming for a sensitive and not a conceptual way of living. This cry is full of paradoxes, and yet crystal-clear for the one who wants to feel.

The borderlines between geniality, craziness , freedom and extreme sensibility are fragile and reflect an ever actual theme.

The show composed of songs, dance, texts , music and video proposes a playful laughter, and a strong vital dance. Extravert, free , surprising, fast and light., caught in great music and words of the divine dancer, driven by the necessity to be communicated.

A show structured by songs and words, but with a great deal of unexpected music and dance to happen.
